40:12-31 The Israelites might have thought Yahweh was limited in His power and inferior to the Babylonian gods because of their exile, but now Yahweh assures them that this is not true. With a series of rhetorical questions that expect an answer of "no one but Yahweh," Yahweh declares His sovereignty over creation.

Isaiah 40:31 Context. 28 Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding. 29 He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. 30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: 31 But those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.

Jeremiah chapter 31 KJV (King James Version) 1 At the same time, saith the LORD, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people. 2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest. 3 The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an ...
Jan 16, 2014 · Jeremiah ministers to the Jews for about 40 years, and his career is a sad one. He is, for the most part, the only prophet of God in the land: everyone else who claims to have a word from the Lord is a fake. Jeremiah is also the longest book of the Bible by word count in the original language. (Jer 31:31-34). God makes this covenant

Jeremiah 31:31-34 NIV - “The days are coming,” declares

Jeremiah was active as a prophet from the thirteenth year of Josiah, king of Judah (626 BC), until after the fall of Jerusalem and the destruction of Solomon’s Temple in 587 BC. This period spanned the reigns of five kings of Judah: Josiah, Jehoahaz, Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah. The prophetess Huldah was a relative and contemporary of Jeremiah while the ...

Jeremiah 31 esv - The LORD Will Turn Mourning to Joy

The understanding of the early Christians that Jesus represented a "new covenant" is based on Jeremiah 31:31-34, in which a future Israel will repent and give God the obedience he demands. The Gospel's portrayal of Jesus as a persecuted prophet owes a great deal to the account of Jeremiah's sufferings in chapters 37 -44 , as well as to the
